PASTOR'S POST

Next Stop on the Lenten Journey: "An Unexpected Conversation"

3rd Sunday in Lent -- March 19, 2017

Dear friends in Christ:

Our Lenten journey continues this Sunday, as we make our way with Jesus toward the decisive events of Holy Week. This Sunday John the Evangelist invites us once again to eavesdrop on an unexpected conversation Jesus has with an unnamed woman at Jacob's well in the region of Samaria. This is the longest extended conversation Jesus has with any individual reported anywhere in the New Testament. Many churches will read the whole account in John 4. Our reading is John 4:5-26. I couldn't find the name of the artist who rendered the painting above/right, but if you are familiar with the account or read the story now, you might wonder what point in the conversation the artist is depicting.

As I see it Jesus is pointing somewhere off the canvas, not up toward heaven, but perhaps back to the town where she came from. The woman, with water jug in hand, seems to me to have a disturbed look on her face, as if she were remembering something painful from her past. Indeed she is, because Jesus has just revealed that he is fully aware of her whole story. Later, when she goes back to her town, she tells everyone that she has met a man who has told her everything about her life! He whole story – the good and the bad, the happy and the sad. In another interesting detail she leaves her water jug at the well. She walked all that way for water in the midday sun and leaves the jug behind? Makes no sense! So it must mean something for faith.

Indeed it does. John writes, So the woman left her water jar and went away into town and said to the people, "Come, see a man who told me all that I ever did. Can this be the Christ?" (John 4:28-29) In response to her question, the towns' people come out to meet Jesus.

There is certainly a lot one could talk about in John 4. That's what we do in our Monday morning Bible study group. You should come! Everyone is welcome. But I want to focus on one thing: that the woman at the well went and told people about her encounter with the Lord, and they, in response, came out to meet him. That makes her one of the first evangelists. In this time and place God calls all of us to be evangelists. Surely like her we know that Jesus knows all about us – our whole story: the happy and sad, the good and the bad, and yet he receives us into a life giving relationship because of His love and mercy for us sinners. The question I put before you as a church family is this: how are we inviting others to come and share the joy of living in Christ's love?

When I think about Shepherd of the Valley it seems to me that the one thing we do NOT do very well is invite people to church, to share our encounter with Jesus in the Word and Sacraments. Someone once said to me, "No of us converts anyone. The best we can do is invite them and let the Holy Spirit work through God's Word and the Sacraments."

The woman at the well was so over joyed to have that unexpected conversation with Jesus that she forgot what she came there for in the first place, and left her jug behind as she went to tell her fellow villagers what happened. So who is your your village? Has anything happened to you for having met Jesus? Who should you be telling about your encounter with Him? Last week Rob Durbin invited the whole OSU racquetball team (he's the coach) to come to worship and be blessed and prayed for as they travelled to California for their tournament. That was a blessing for us a reminder too that it's not enough to be friendly. We have to be inviting.

The most urgent question that emerges for me as I think about this story in John 4 and our congregation is who should we be inviting? What's stopping us from being more excited about the Good news of God love in Christ? The water of life flows from God's Word and the Sacraments Jesus instituted. It would be interesting to ask how things might change if every worshipping member of our church invited at least one person to church every week. You'd get a lot of "no's" but there could be that one "yes." Do you think it's worth the effort? I do.

God's blessings!

LENT MIDWEEK SOUP SUPPERS & SERVICES

Our mission partners are invited to join us for supper and to share at the beginning of the 7:00 PM worship service how our investment in their ministry has benefited them.

DATE	THEME	SCRIPTURE	MISSION PARTNER
03/08/2017	pride	Pharisee & publican	Luther House, Pastor Jim Norlie & students
03/15/2017	anxiety	Jesus on worry	Community Outreach, Chris Quake
03/22/2017	anger	Jesus on anger	Habitat for Humanity, Karen Rockwell, Exec. Dir.
03/29/2017	bitterness	Jonah Jumps	Love Inc., Lauren Schaffner
04/05/2017	discouragement	Elijah on the run	Options Pregnancy Resources, Karen Tamelung

They are invited to share how our support as a church has made a positive impact on those they serve. This will be for 5-7 minutes during the offering. The service concludes by sharing in the Service of Compline (night prayer) in the Lutheran Service Book, 253, and should conclude by 7:45 PM.

I have agreed to pray for and ask God's blessing the OSU racquet ball team 3/12/2017 (Lent 2) at the conclusion of the service. At least eight players will be attending our service with Rob Durban, their coach. The team is headed for Fountain Valley, CA for "nationals."

Shepherd of the Valley has received a request from Light of Christ Anglican Church, a congregation of the Anglican Church in North America, Cascadia Diocese. Fr. Scott Browning, Pastor. They have been meeting in member's homes, however this has placed limitations on their ministry and they have asked for a local church to share facilities with them.

- To join us for M-Gen Sunday School
- To use the worship space for their Sunday Services (after m-Gen Sunday School)
- To join with us for special services such as Maundy Thursday & Good Friday.
- Use of facilities at times that do not conflict with ministries and program of Shepherd of the Valley

It should be noted that the ACNA and the LCMS have been in conversation for some time now and progress is being made toward altar/pulpit fellowship (handouts). One possibility: agree to a "trial run" for a specific period of time and re-evaluate. I believe it would be best to make this on a suggested donation basis.

Respectfully submitted,
Pastor Joe Hughes

OUR BIBLE READING CHALLENGE

SYLLABUS AND READING ASSIGNMENTS in MATTHEW, THE GOSPEL OF IDENTITY February–May 2017

The Biblical Equipping Ministry Team is challenging everyone in at Shepherd of the Valley to read and study the Gospel of Matthew using Michael Card's book Matthew, the Gospel of Identity. Card argues that Matthew's first hearers (intended audience) were Jewish people who accepted Jesus as the messiah (Christ) and were probably living in or from Galilee in the time after Jesus' death and resurrection. Galilee was a land in turmoil. The Romans had destroyed the Jerusalem temple and many Jewish freedom fighters had died in the wars with the Roman occupation forces.

Not all Jews accepted that Jesus was the promised Messiah, as is obvious from the story of Jesus' passion and death. Those who did were a relatively small group that at first tried to blend in with those who did not. By the time Matthew's Gospel was in written form these Jewish Christians were being "stripped of their Jewish identity," expelled from synagogues and shunned by main line Judaism, says Michael Card.

The first listeners of the Gospel of Matthew may have been living that experience, propelling them to ask the question, "Who am I, really?" In Matthew Jesus redefines the identity of his followers in light of His own identity and Immanuel, Go with us." In Him they are fishers of people, inviting the poor, sinful and unclean to enter the new kingdom on Jesus' authority, by "following Jesus," and ultimately sent into the world to "make disciples of all nations." (Card, pp 20-21).

What can we discover about what it means to be called to follow Jesus as a "priesthood of believers" from the Gospel of Matthew? How does God call us to embrace a new identity as followers of Jesus in the world today? Join the lively conversation Sundays, 10:30-11:30 AM.
