ATTENTION!!

Our CALL MEETING will take place this Sunday, January 21st at 10:30 a.m. We need everyone to plan on joining us. Thank you for your continued prayers as we seek God's guidance in this process. Please come with questions and thoughts. We look forward to a lively and open discussion!!

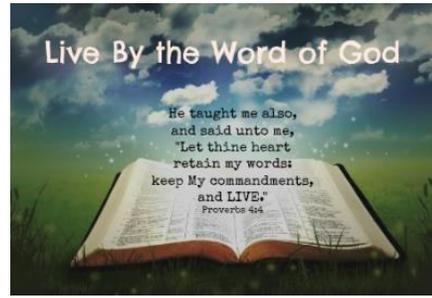

Lots of opportunities to fill in the blanks on the Lay Ministry calendar at the end of this newsletter. Email or call Lisa at the office to fill in a slot or bring your calendar on Sunday to fill in the sheets on the bulletin board. Don't be shy ☺

Notebooks with information about our pastoral candidate are available for congregational review. There is a self-evaluation from our candidate and interview notes from some of the Committee members. These books can be found near the mailboxes. Please take time to review this information.

Your Call Committee encourages you to seek them out for any further detailed questions. This is a key decision in our mission to the Lord in this time and place, so please get answers to any concerns you may have from any or all of the Committee.

Voters' Meeting

The Quarterly Voters' Meeting of SVLC will take place on Sunday, January 28th following fellowship time. Please plan on staying for this important meeting.

A volunteer is still needed to be our Lay Representative at the LCMS District Convention in Portland this summer. All expenses will be paid by Shepherd of the Valley. The Convention takes place at the Oregon Convention Center beginning at 12:00 p.m. on Thursday, June 21st, and ending at 12:00 p.m. on Saturday, June 23rd. Please talk to Bill Chambers or Lisa Boylan if you are interested.

Donna Durbin was able to create and donate 10 hygiene kits from donations you brought to the church. These mean a lot to those who receive them. Thank you so much!

PLEASE NOTE: The SVLC Leadership Retreat has been postponed until at least March. The date will be announced once determined by the Church Council.

Dr. Bob Thompson, organist, will present a concert at 12:15 p.m. on Wednesday, January 17th at First United Methodist Church featuring organ works by Mendelssohn, Schumann, and Brahms.

Chancel Refresh Update

First of all, a correction needs to be made from last week's information. Carpet installation is actually the final part of Phase 1 (not Phase 2 as I had stated). Installation began yesterday! Wonderful!! WOW!! Wait until you see the new look 😊

Corvallis Men's Shelter

<http://bentonhoac.com/corvallis-mens-shelter/>

The Corvallis Men's Shelter is still in need of volunteers through March 31st. If you want more information about the shelter, check their website above. Additionally, questions about volunteering can be directed to volunteer coordinators Roz Keeney and Sherrie Day at Corvmensshelter@gmail.com. They are more than happy to talk with you about positions available and what they entail. Volunteer slots can be found at: <http://bit.ly/shelter18>. This is a marvelous opportunity to make a difference right here in the Corvallis community.

New MultiGen+ Sunday Study February 4th – March 25th 10:30-11:30 a.m.

Please join us for an eight-week study led by Pastor Paul Doellinger entitled Christianity and The Competition. This video-based series is presented by Dr. Paul L. Maier, who is the Russell H. Seibert Professor of Ancient History at Western Michigan University, the Second Vice-President of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, and much-published author of both scholarly and popular works.

Christianity and The Competition looks at sacred and secular sources to establish the credentials of Christianity. It goes on to enlighten us about religions of the Far East, the Middle East, Islam, and various Western religions encountered in America today, such as Mormonism, cults, and Scientology. Dr. Maier will take us through a Christian response to the various beliefs and claims of "the competition". Each week we will view video and then enter into a period of discussion. Please join us immediately following fellowship time for this informative and illuminating series.
