SVLC 2018 Summer Bible Challenge

WALKING WITH THE APOSTLES Join in the CHURCH-WIDE (and friends too!) READING and STUDY of THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

From May 28th to September 2nd you are invited to read through the amazing 28 chapters (that's two chapters to read each week) of The Acts of the Apostles. Whether you are a regular Multi-Gen Sunday Bible class attendee or not; whether you will spend your summer days in the valley or vacationing/traveling far from home . . . you are challenged to join our entire church body in the pursuit of knowing the great story of the First Century Christian Church.

Beginning June 3rd, Pastor Paul will lead a corresponding study of this engaging Book of the Bible during our Multi-Gen Bible class. Each Sunday, he will select a "nugget" from the two chapters we will read during the week to focus our learning.

On Sunday, May 27th you will receive your own personal bookmark with chapter assignments and your reading record. If you are not at worship on May 27th, your bookmark will be placed in your church mailbox.

Your Biblical Equipping Team prays that this church-wide study of the activities of the Early Christian Church will be an uplifting and bonding experience ~ and that it will enhance your own summer travels, whether near or far. And please check out the Biblical Equipping Bulletin Board near the mailboxes for more information.
