In Romans 6, Paul describes an experience with death. In fact, he describes the experience of all who have passed through the treacherous waters of Baptism. Of course when we look at the Baptismal font with its still, calm waters it fills none of us with fear or trepidation. But it could. It should. It should because, as Paul asserts, those waters are where we knocked on death's door. All of us who have been baptized in Christ Jesus were baptized into his death" (v. 3). We crossed over. We went under. In those waters we drowned and experienced death with Christ. As each person is brought to the baptismal waters, we can catch a glimpse of a moment—the moment—when death rages around them and what is old is washed away.

An experience with death has a way of reshaping perspectives—shifting priorities. Whatever led to the young woman's fall, I cannot imagine she will be quick to do it again. Her view of life and death and the dangers they contain will affect her every step. She will be wary to let herself fall again. So too with those who have passed from death to life in the Savior's arms, rescued and claimed by God's Son Himself. The one who has died has been set free from sin" (v. 7). We know the place where sin leads us. We've ventured through those dark and dangerous places. Thanks be to God that Jesus was there. Thanks be to God Jesus continues to carry us into life everlasting.

Peace,
Pastor Eric

We have had just a few children attending the Child Evangelism Fellowship 5-Day Club this week at church.

There are still a couple of days left in case you know of children who would like to join in the fun. Monday morning included a discussion of WORMS by Cynthia Dort. 'Dirt and worms' was the snack of the day and the kids had questions about whether the 'dirt' was real (Oreo cookies) ☺ It is wonderful to be able to have the additional activity around the church this week. If you are near the church between 10-12:00, stop by and check it out!

Camp Serene will be celebrating their 50th Annual Labor Day Weekend barbeque fundraiser on Sunday, September 2nd at 4:00 p.m. See the flyer on the bulletin board for more information

REJOICE / PRAY / GIVE THANKS

Sunday, September 30 at 4 pm.
Circuit 3 and 4 Forum

We will need to elect a pastoral delegate, lay delegate, alternate pastoral delegate and alternate lay delegate for the Synod Convention in June 2019. Due to the distance involved between churches, this meeting will be an "e-meeting"--you will be able to attend it either by phone or computer. More details to come when the time draws closer.

The important thing to remember is that before the September 30th meeting, each congregation must decide on a layperson that will attend this meeting (with you) representing your church. Also, each congregation can nominate one layperson from their own membership or a layperson from another congregation to serve as the lay delegate or alternative lay delegate for Convention. Please submit your nominee(s) to me by September 29.
